WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.

"Resolved, That this Government is a Government of limited powers, and that by the Constitution of the United States,

States of the Confederacy.

Resolved, 'That petitions for the Abolibin, and the Territories of the U States. and against the removal of slaves from the Institution of Slavery in the several States, and thus, indirectly, to destroy that Institution within their limits.

Resolved, That Congress has no right to do that indirectly, which it cannot do directly, and that the agitation of the subject of Slavery, in the District of Columbia, or in the Territories, or in any manner, with the view of disturbing, or over-States, is equally unconstitutional, and beyond its legislative competency.

Resolved, also, That the Constitution rests on the broad principles of equality will be used, by this arch seducer, to bring among the members of the Confederacy. S. Carolina into his arms, is more than I and that Congress, in the exercise of acknowledged powers, has no right to dis-eriminate, between the Institutions of one sufficient to effect his purpose. "Principiis obsta: sero medicina paratur, Cum mala per longus convolucre moras."-Ovid Stop it in the beginning: after the disease has gained strength by delay, medicine can do no good.

Mr. Editor,-That efforts, are now being made to amalgamate the S. Carolina Sun Treasury, and the Democratic Jackson Van buren party, is a fact, which must have arrested the attention of even the most cursory observer, of the political events of the day.

The Mercury has some time since, a s ed the Van Buren flag. The same paper is now the apologist, and the Washington Chronicle, the open advocate of Gen. Jackson's Administration. The South Carolinan is also wearing round, and bring ing batteries to bear upon the unfounded-'prejudicies of the people" against the present "excellent Administration!"-Whether is is that our Politicians, from their vigitant watchings and long fastings, now begin to look with out keener appethe town of Hamburg. That spot, which, but tites upon the loaves and fishes; or whether it is (as they once told us) that he of ing forth its pestiferous exhalations, is now cov- Kinderhook is bona tide a Magician, I ored with stately buildings, and is the great em- um unable to determine. It is certain, porium of tra e. fir a large section of South however, that unless the People forbid the bands, they will, ere long, nave South Carolina politically united to M Van Buren.

A sincere belief, that the Treasury question is to be made a gap, through which Van Burenism, is to be let into our State, a hope that when I have given the alarm. you, or some one else, who is capable of counselling us, will point out the path of honor and of safety, as well as the calmest conviction, of the profound philosophy of the sentence, which I have selected for my motto, has determined me, most refuctantly, to obtrude my opinions upon the public. Let us examine for an instant, the reaons, which are assigned for this unnatu ral and unholy union.

We should support him, we are told, because, upon his election, depends the fate of our favorite measure, the Constitutional Treasury How is this Bill to be passed! By the vote of our Senators and Representatives at Washington. How is the President elected? By the vote of our Elec-tors at Columbia. How then does the fate of the Treasury Bill depend upon our vote for President!

But he is a "Northern President with Southern principles," No doubt of it !-Did Martin Van Buren not vote for the Pariff? Was be not in favor of the Bloody Bill and Gen. Jackson's Proclam on !-Did he not introduce into the A v York Legislature. Resolutions, instructing their Senators to oppose the admission of any Slave-holding Territory into this Union xcellent Southern principles these !

But this is a "Crisis" and our only hope of safety is in this "Northern President with Southern principles." Can you recollect, Mr Editor, when we had not a "crisis!" There was a great one, I remember, when lutions of this gentlemen do bin high honor, dency. We then set up hickory posts, walked with hickory sticks, cat our barbecues on hickory leaves, and elected "Old Such men as Mr. Atherton, deserve the ap- Hickory" "to serve the Country!" Now, plause and the gratitude of the whole c un y. to show how extensively weapproved of his If the Northern people will sustain their Rep- mode of effecting the cure, we are called resentatives, in such resolutions as these, then on to elect this Mixer of his Medicines. who has pledged himself to "follow in the tootsteps of his Illustrious Predecessor."

But, say his friends, there is no danger of his keeping this pledge-he never intended to keep it-it was merely an elec-tioneering trick-granted. What reliance of Southern rights. Let it be the prayer of everan we put in such a man? Can South Carolina, from whose soil chivalry and honor spontaneously spring, even for a moment, entertain the idea of supporting this man, whose only claim rests, upon his being able to prove, that he has committed moral perjury?

But he has pledged (pledged!) himself Congress has no jurisdiction whatever to veto any Bill for Abolition, which may over the subject of Slavery in the several pass during his term of office. P-r-o-d-i-States of the Confederacy. such a pledge would (as it had done) intion of Slavery in the District of Colum- crease his popularity, do you suppose that Martin Van Buren had not sagacity enough to perceive it? Who dreams that such a one State to another, are intended to affect Bill can pass during his Administration? Had the majority been on the other side. you may rest assured, that, he would have had too tender a regard for his popularity, ever to have made such a pledge.

It is the vilest jargon-the most miserable mockery-the grossest insult to our common sease, to point out this man, as a protector against Abolition, who would to-morrow, if in Congress, vote against throwing that Institution in the several the admission of Texas in the Union expressly on the ground of slavery! What drugs, what charms, "What conjurations and what mighty magic," can divine. Powerful will be the potation; view of abolishing the one, and promoting the bashfulness of youth'ul beauty, blushing at his slightest hint of admirationwho with virgin purity, saw wrong in even on the part of Congress, to abolish slavery his most delicate attentions, will, now, in the District of Columbia, or the Terri- banish from her bosom, not only all mai-

OBITUARY.

Died at his residence, on Turkey Creek, in agefield District, on Tuesday, the 11th instant, fr aconomic COCH AAN, aged 83 years and 3 months. There are many incidents con-nected with this excellent man's life, which would make his biography of peculiar interest, tae citizens of this District. Mr. Cochran was one of the veicran heroes of '76, being in active service during the greater part of the American Revolution, in which be rendered many important services to be country. Although he never had the fortune to be in any general engagement, yet he was a ways on the a ert, and vas mgniv successful in many excursions, and skironishes against the British, Indians, and To-ries. Mr. C. and Mr. Hatcher, whose widow is yet living in this District were the two first in the District and the District, and perhaps in the State, who met or the purpose of raising companies to oppose the Pories, and procure protection for their wives and children, at the time when the States of South Carolina and Georgia were considered as prisoners of war, many of whose citizens ed as prisoners of war, many of whose citizens were accuracy on parote as such, and were afterwards ordered not the British service. It was on the receipt of this order, that Mr. C. and Mr. H. formed the bold determination to oppose tyran by at every hazard, which they did. Mr. C. was at one time taken prisoner, by the infamous William Cunningham and his gang, who, after plut dering him of all they desired, told Mr. C. that he (Cunningham) had killed nine-tyrnine men with his own hands, and that he had never shown mercy to any whom he had taken: never shown mercy to any whom he had taken; but, although he knew him to be his enemy, he considered him an honorable one and would spare him; and on the same day, they overtook ther whigs, and massacred them with a savage hand. Mr. C. was a member of the Methodist Church for the last 30 years of his life, wherein he conducted himself altogether worthy of his sacred profession, in all his transactions ing unto others as he would they should do unto " He occupied a high seat in the bosoms of all his acquaintance while living, and died regretted by every true hearted Christian, and Republican who knew blar.
